Important Limitations

- Survivorship & look-ahead bias: universe defined retrospectively; acquired or delisted names excluded.
- No transaction costs, taxes, or market-impact estimates are reflected.
- No point-in-time data: classification based on current business descriptions.
- Single data source (Yahoo Finance): adjusted prices may diverge from official vendor data.
- Static universe: no formal review process, liquidity screen, or free-float adjustment.
- Sharpe ratio computed with zero risk-free rate.
